introduction

All our lives we've been preparing ourselves, through knowledge and practice, for the reaching of our individual goals.

Even though we have not experienced fully the struggle and achievements of adulthood, we have encountered them on a smaller level and in our own little community-our school. Here we have met many of the phases of life . . .

dedication

He has taught in public schools for nearly forty years, at Hamburg for almost thirty. Here he has taught Physical Education, coached sports, acted as Athletic Director, and taught Social Studies. He is a dedicated, hard working teacher. He has contributed much to our lives in the line of education. He has taught us self-discipline. But most of all, through the example of his life, he has shown us how to be strong, intelligent human beings, dedicated to the betterment of society. For these reasons and many others, we dedicate this book to

Commercial Secretarial
Joan hopes to work in a bank upon graduation. Swimming, dancing, and sports occupy most of her spare time. She always looks forward to P.O.D. class.

DIANE FERN WERLEY
Academic
Diane will never turn down the opportunity of using her sister's car. She always enjoys sewing, dancing, and meeting new people. . .She lists P.O.D. as her favorite subject while physics irritates her.

SHARON ALICE WAGNER
Commercial Clerical
This senior hails from Strausstown. Sharon enjoys all sports and finds much of her spare time occupied by 4-H activities. Upon graduation she hopes to work in the field of bookkeeping.

DARLENE MAY WEIDENHAMMER General
Darlene never appreciates getting up early. When she is not cooking or sewing, she enjoys reading, dancing, or bowling. Darlene can't wait for home economics class.

RUSSELL HENRY WERLEY
Industrial
Russ plans to enter the Navy upon graduation. He always looks forward to hunting season and Trig class but certainly not physics class.

CAROL ANN WESSNER
General
Carol hails from Jalappa. Slow drivers and Mondays never fail to irritate her. P.O.D. class is always the high point of her day. Carol's future is undecided.

DONNA MARIE WINK
Commercial Secretarial
Donna always enjoys having a good time and eating good food. She treasures her class ring and jacket. P.O.D. class always brightens her day while transcript class is an entirely different story.

DANIEL FREDERICK WOLFE
Academic
"Fred" is one of the quieter members of the senior class. He always enjoys traveling and hunting. History class is the high point of his day. A career in conservation is in Fred's immediate future.

JACQUELINE MARIE WOLFE
Academic
If you want to please Jackie, offer her hamburgers and french fries. Reading, sewing, and knitting occupy most of her spare time. College and traveling await Jackie upon graduation.

SUSAN ELIZABETH WOLFE
Commercial Secretarial
Suzie can be seen working in the school library. Sewing, cooking, and horseback riding are some of her favorite pastimes. She enjoys all her classes but her early lunch period really irritates her.

DEBRA ELAINE WYDRA
Academic
Debbie is one of the more active members of the senior class. She enjoys talking, sewing, and watching sports, but she certainly doesn't enjoy doing homework. Her future includes a career as an x-ray technician.

DWIGHT DONALD ZERR
Academic
Dwight, the President of the Student Council, is always ready to discuss politics or participate in sports. Although he dislikes chem class, history class highlights his day. College will claim Dwight upon graduation.

DANIEL ROBERT ZIMMERMAN Vo Ag
Any outside activity pleases Daniel. He never looks forward to history class but he relishes any type of good food. He plans a military career upon graduation.

NELSON DEAN ZOOK
Industrial
The service will claim Nelson upon graduation. He will never turn down the chance to participate in sports. Gym class always brightens his day.

AARON WEILER ZIMMERMAN

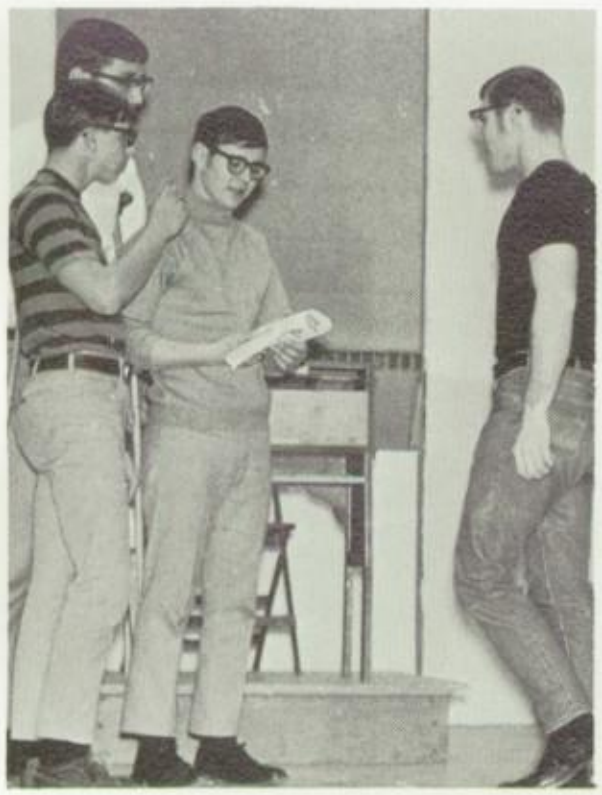
senior class play

This year the Seniors presented one of the wildest, wackiest comedies ever. In addition to the very different story used for the play, it was also performed in a different manner - there were two different casts - one for each night of the presentation. This gave the opportunity of being in the play to more seniors which led to a very successful event in their senior year.

"One vote for the rabbit to get Trix."



"I'm with you!"

"I think I'm stuck."

"But I use a mouthwash."

"I vant to bite your neck."

L to R. GeorgeRitter, Vice president; Stephanie Ortenzi, Secretary; Steven Bleile, President; Nancy Fidler, Treasurer

The Junior Class, guided by President Steve Bleile, Vice President George Ritter, Secretary Stephanie Ortenzi, and Treasurer Nancy Fidler, prepared itself for their forth coming senior year as leaders at H.A.H.S.

Presenting their class play, "Brother Goose", receiving their green and white class jackets, and sponsoring the prom, were notable accomplishments of the Jr. class.

To the Seniors of Tomorrow, from the Seniors of Today: offered is our motto, NOT FINISHED JUST BEGUN.

jr. class play

This year the Junior Class chose the comedy "Brother Goose" for their play. The play centered around a parentless family of four led by the eldest brother. In a desperate hunt for a "house keeper", several unusual and comical situations arose. As the play continued the youngest girl of the family, the neighborhood football star, saved her brother from marrying a heartless girl. But, as the play closed her brother falls in love with his house keeper and his goose was finally cooked.

L. to R. Tracey Bachman, President; Vicki Mount, Secretary; William Norton, Vice President; Joni Gregor, Treasurer

We look upon the Sophomore Class as being the new leaders in their future years at Hamburg Area High School. Even now we picture them as able Juniors anxious to participate in their Junior activities such as the Junior Class Play, selecting colors for their class jackets and receiving them, receiving their class rings, and sponsoring the prom. To them we leave our hopes that they might become prosperous in their future accomplishments.

student council

The Student Council, composed of representatives from each grade, has been extremely active during the past year. The organization was formed to give students experience in the practical application of government. This year, with the help of the students and administration, the Student Council has strived for and successfully gained many improvements within the school. They are especially proud of their latest efforts in attaining the school store.

pinnacle

Many frustrating hours have been put into the production of this year book. The staff responsible composed articles, arranged pictures, and ran around taking candids. Once more, the Pinnacle Staff managed somehow to meet its deadlines and succeeded in producing a fine book, done, it believes, to the best of its ability.

football

This year an exciting new sport, football, was added to the fall sports schedule. This team, comprised of 50 very enthusiastic boys, was coached by Mr. Geno Poli with the assistance of Mr. Guy Ketch and Mr. Brian Miller. These hard working boys put forth great effort to obtain their final record: 4 wins, 6 losses, 1 tie.

This year's soccer team began training August 18. Their hard work was rewarded, for they won their first three games, lost the fourth, and then battled for more victories. The soccer team succeeded in winning the playoff game with Brandywine at Kutztown by corner kicks, which gave them the Division Championship. Their next step was the County Championship game with Elco at the Municipal Stadium, Reading, but unfortunately they were defeated 4-1. Next year, six lettermen will be returning and hopes for the Berks County Championship are bright as ever.

girls hockey

The members of the Hockey Team practiced faithfully in spite of the sore muscles and joints. The girls were quite a challenge to the league competitors, the Senior boys, and the faculty. Their coach, Mrs. Brader, treated the Senior girls to a spaghetti dinner at her home. The hockey team finished in a tie for second place.

girls' basketball team

With a lot of hustle and skill the Hawkettes finished their season with a 3-4 record. Coached by Mrs. Louise Schwarz, the team practiced many hours, even though they were unable to reach the top. Congratulations to the girls for the effort and enthusiasm they displayed this year.

wrestling team

Sporting new uniforms, the rugged Hawk wrestlers kept up the fine spirit by almost capturing the Class B Championship. With the help of several undefeated wrestlers, the Hawks brought home the best seasonal record and had great hopes for several county champs. This team is certainly to be congratulated for its fine efforts.

varsity basketball

The hard working basketball team found the road to victory rough this year, competing in possibly the toughest Berks Conference ever. The fighting Hawks had a strike against them from the beginning, playing without floor general Denny Snyder for the whole season. The team hustled throughout the year and finished with a disappointing record, however, they are looking forward to better things next year.
